PARIS NOVEMBER 12 -19

Reservations at Hotel Bastille Speria. You can look it up on line to see its style and location.

Some thoughts about how we will spend our days and nights while in the City of Lights!!!!

MUSEUMS:

- Centre Pompidou
- Louvre
- D'Orsay
- Rodin
- L'Orangerie – Monet's lilies
- Cluny Museum (maybe)
- Musee Rodin

CHURCHES:

- Notre Dame – a courtesy call
- Sainte-Chapelle – stained glass windows
- Sacre Couer – if we want to climb that hill
- Sainrte-Denis – church where kings and queens are buried. A metro ride.
- Sainte-Paul – Our neighborhood church. Very old and interesting

RESTAURANTS:

- Procope – oldest restaurant in Paris on the Left Bank.
- Brasserie Bofinger – Next to our hotel and very good.
- Bistros, Bistros, Bistros
- “Breakfast in America” – 4 blocks from the hotel if we must have bacon and eggs.

JUST PLACES:

- Versailles- A day trip.
- La Defence – new modern part of Paris. Offices, parks, restaurants
- Old Opera House – Chagall ceiling
- New Opera Hours – Located Place Bastille. Just want to see it.
- Gallery Lafayette – roof top view plus coffee or a glass of wine.
- Cimetiere du Pere-Lachaise – last stop on bus 69
- George Cinq lobby – just to see it
- Champs-Elysees – Walk
- Le Marais - Walk
- Flea Market -Big one on the edge of town and small one near Place Bastille.
- And whatever else we come up with.

Note: It is suggested that we buy a special ticket to enter all of the museums which is less expensive than individual tickets and you are able to avoid lines.

I welcome your comments, additions and/or deletions.
